DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-6, drawn to an information reproduction apparatus having a rotation control selection section for selecting CLV or CAV control sections based on an information length of continuous information recorded on a recording medium, classified in 369/47.45.

Group II, claims 7-17, drawn to an information reproduction apparatus having a rotation control selection section for selecting CLV or CAV control sections based on whether or not information to be reproduced is moving image information, classified in 369/47.41.

Group III, claims 18-20, drawn to an information carrier having a plurality of information recording areas separated along a radial direction and designated based on a continuous read-out data length, classified in 369/275.3.

Group IV, claims 21-24, drawn to an information recording apparatus having a recording section that records continuous information in to a corresponding recording area depending on the information length, classified in 369/59.25.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Invention groups I, II & IV are related as subcombinations useable together, but each are drawn to the special technical feature as noted supra, where each respective feature is not required by the other subcombinations. Groups I & II have separate utility with recording apparatus. Group IV has separate utility with reproduction apparatus with selective region processing control. Invention Group III is related as a subcombination having a special technical feature as noted supra that is not required by the combination apparatus of Groups I, II & IV. Group III has separate utility with reproduction apparatus having selective region processing control.

Art Unit: 2652

3. In the event Group II is elected, this application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows: the determination means including determining whether information is a moving image information based on:

- a. Information length, as in claim 10
- b. Input command, as in claim 11
- c. Presence of a regional code, as in claim 12
- d. Presence of defect management information, as in claim 13
- e. File extension, as in claim 14
- f. Parental lock restraint, as in claim 15
- g. Copyright authentication, as in claim 16

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:
- Species a, claim 10
 - Species b, claim 11
 - Species c, claim 12
 - Species d, claim 13
 - Species e, claim 14
 - Species f, claim 15
 - Species g, claim 16

Art Unit: 2652

Claim 7 is generic.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Each species is drawn to a mutually exclusive embodiment of determination means operating in respective manner as noted above.

6. No telephone call was made to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement due to the complexity thereof.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Peter Vincent Agustin whose telephone number is (703) 305-8980. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday thru Friday 9:00AM - 5:30PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Hoa Nguyen can be reached on (703) 305-9687. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
